CALLED OFF Burns Desires to Call Bout Off Because Newspapers Are Not Supporting It.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Dec. 25.—As-serting that New Orleans newspapers are not lending their support to the proposed twenty round bout between Jess Willard and Fred Fulton, of Rochester, Minn., to be staged next March for the heavyweight championship of the world, Tommy Burns, the promoter, today notified Tom Andrews, his local representative, that he desired to call off the bout.

Andrews, replying to Burns, said that such a move would be a serious mistake. He also said that if the New Orleans promoters decided not to stage the match, he (Andrews) would gladly take over the project by offering the boxers a purse of $25,000 for a ten round bout during the first week in round bout during the first week in February.

"The substitution of Frank Moran for Fulton," said Andrews tonight, "would be a poor one. Moran has refused to meet Fulton. The bout was made in good faith. Both men have posted with me forfeits of $2,500 each. The preomters have as yet falled to post their money of similar amount with Bob Vernon, of New York. It would be an injustice to Mike Collins to call off the match, for Collins has refused offers amounting to $10,000 to have Fulton meet Jim Coffey.
